Minor in French

Department of World Languages & Cultures — Iowa State University

2011-2013 Catalogue

The Minor: Students in any college with a minor in French must complete at least 15 credits beyond the French 102 level and of which 9 credits must be at the French 300-level instructed in French. A special International Business Secondary Major and French Minor with LCP Emphasis is available to students in the College of Business.

French Studies Minor (15 cr.):
Required courses include:
- French 301: French Writing & Grammar (3 cr.),
- French 302: Reading & Writing French (3 cr.),
- One of the following courses: French 304: French for Business & Professions (3 cr.), French 320: France Today (3 cr.), French 326: Studies in French or Francophone Art and Film (3 cr.), or French 340: Studies in French or Francophone Literature (3 cr.).

Internships: Students interested in interning in a French-speaking country should request additional information from Mr. Nathan Henceroth, LCP Program Coordinator (3102G Pearson, nhencero@iastate.edu). If you are an Engineering Student, also contact ISU Engineering International Programs (113 Marston, eip@iastate.edu.)

Study Abroad: Students interested in studying abroad in a French-speaking country should request additional information from Dr. Stacey Weber-Feve (3102K Pearson, sweber@iastate.edu), and contact the ISU Study Abroad Center (3224 Memorial Union, studyabroad@iastate.edu).

International Business Secondary Major and French Minor with LCP Emphasis (27 cr. total):
Required courses include:
- Twelve Credits from approved International Business list.
- French 301: French Writing & Grammar (3 cr.),
- French 302: Reading & Writing French (3 cr.),
- French 304: French for Business & Professions (3 cr.)
- French 320: France Today (3 cr.)
- French 326: Studies in French or Francophone Art and Film (3 cr.), or French 340: Studies in French or Francophone Literature (3 cr.).
- French 499: French Internship or French 395: Study Abroad (3 cr.)*

*Additional credit from an approved study abroad program may be applied to the major and may be allocated as follows: generic 300-level credits (1-8 cr.) or French 320 (3 cr.).